On March 13, 2013 the words "Habemus Papam!" were finally heard in a crowded St. Peter's square announcing the election of the new Pope, Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio. It did not take long to discover that Pope Francis had Italian roots. His family was originally from the village of Portacomaro Stazione, part of the city of Asti, located in the rolling hills of Monferrato in the historic ...

A Papal Family Tree | My Italian Family | Family Tree

This Letter to Families wishes in the first place to be a prayer to Christ to remain in every human family; an invitation to him, in and through the small family of parents and children, to dwell in the great family of nations, so that together with him all of us can truly say: "Our Father"! Prayer must become the dominant element of the Year ...
